AMENDMENT UNDER ARTICLE 34

Pursuant to Article 34 of the Patent Cooperation Treaty ("PCT"), and to the relevant provisions of PCT Rule 66 thereunder, Applicant hereby submits replacement pages 9, 10, 12, 13 and 14 for the description of the patent application identified above. These sheets, which contain amendments to the international patent application as filed, replace identically numbered sheets in that application.

On 19 September 2005, Applicant filed a Demand for International Preliminary Examination ("IPEA") for the patent application identified above.

On 7 February 2006, the International Searching Authority of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("ISA/US") transmitted an International Search Report ("ISR") for the patent application identified above. The 7 February 2006, ISR indicated that claims 1-10, i.e. all of the claims, possess novelty (N), inventive step (IS) and industrial applicability (IA).

A review of the patent application identified a number of grammatical errors in the patent application as originally filed, and one terminology error. As described in detailed below, the accompanying pages effect corrections of these errors.

DESCRIPTION OF AMENDMENTS
